Senior Videographer • Video Editor • Creative Director

STATEMENT

My passion is telling stories and engaging audiences through all video platforms. I am always ready and able to produce content from conception to delivery across many platforms. During my experience I have designed and produced videos for clients ranging from small start-up to Fortune 500 companies, working for client designs and branding guidelines. My work has been recognized for the ability to produce exemplary work with a proven talent to handle a variety of simultaneous video projects and work under high-pressure deadlines.
